Dear Student:

If you are not already a member, please consider joining the Pi Delta Phi French Honor Society. If your GPA in French and your overall GPA are each 3.00, and you have successfully completed at least one French course at the 300 level, you are eligible to join the society. You need not be a major or minor in French to apply for membership.

Founded at the University of California in 1906, Pi Delta Phi is among the oldest French honor societies in the United States. The University of Miami is host to the Beta Gamma chapter of the society.

Pi Delta Phi's membership includes students, teachers, and professors, and of course alumni who remain involved with the society. Joining the society brings several advantages: you become a member of a national society with members across the United States; it is an asset on your résumé or curriculum vitae; and summer scholarships are available to undergraduates; graduating students may also order the Pi Delta Phi Honor Cord on their regalia. (see <http://www.pideltaphi.org>)

The academic year will soon come to an end. Therefore, I invite you to consider joining Pi Delta Phi. To join, you will need to complete the steps listed below, and participate in the induction ceremony in April.

TO APPLY:

Submit the following documents to Monica Metcalf (m.metcalf1@umiami.edu) in the Department of Modern Languages & Literatures Main Office (MB 212) no later than Friday, March 23, 2015 by 5PM:

- The completed application
- A printed copy of your unofficial transcript (found on CaneLink)
- A check of $40.00 made out to "PI DELTA PHI-BETA GAMMA CHAPTER" (or exact cash)
- IF YOU ARE A GRADUATING SENIOR: you may also include a check or exact cash for $10.00 for honor cords to wear at graduation

PLEASE NOTE THAT YOU MUST ATTEND THE INITIATION CEREMONY IN ORDER TO BECOME A MEMBER OF PI DELTA PHI. NO EXCEPTIONS ARE ALLOWED.

Best wishes,

Logan J. Connors
